

Sandra Ganley Dancer – Jiving Hen's

Parties + Workshops 2022:

Terms and Conditions

As this is a dance activity, it will require an element of physical activity on the part of the Hen Party Group. The group will ensure that all members of the group are physically capable of taking part in such activities, that no group members suffer from disabilities or conditions that may impair, restrict, or endanger their involvement or that of other members of the group's involvement in the service.

PAYMENT/DEPOSIT TERMS:

A deposit of €50 is required to secure you booking upon completion of our online booking form.

Payments/ Deposits are non-refundable.

You, the client, accepts responsibility for collecting monies and paying for all members of the group. We cannot accept individual payments.

AMENDMENTS TO GROUP SIZE:

Within 14-day period from the event we cannot issue partial refunds made for any person no longer able to attend.

DAMAGES:

Jiving Hen's will not accept responsibility for damages caused by the client or any group member within in the venue. The client will be held responsible.

DELAY TERMS:

Delays –

(i). If you (the group) are late arriving/starting a session, your session will be issued with a 15minute 'grace period'. If you are later than 15 minutes, your class will end at the previously agreed time. Workshop staff are booked for the times agreed, they may use their discretion, but this will be on an individual basis.

(ii). On the extremely rare (and unavoidable – due to circumstances beyond their control) occasion a workshop leader may be late to your session. If this situation arises, they will endeavour to provide you with your full session time.

CHANGES:

Changes to Booking –

Should you need to amend the main event details or reschedule the booking within a 14-day period leading up to the booking, we will endeavour to help but cannot guarantee being able to do so.

CANCELLATIONS TERMS:

Cancellation –

(i). If you (the group) chose to cancel, no refunds, compensation or damages will be due.

(ii). In the instance of cancellation or changes made by ourselves due to:

(a). unforeseen logistical issues or staff illnesses, we will make every effort to reschedule or make alternative arrangements where possible. If not possible we will arrange a Full refund.

(b). health and safety conditions being compromised due to participant's behaviour, on the day, no refund or compensation will be applicable.

(c). health and safety conditions being compromised outside of Jiving Hen's control or unforeseeable circumstances. If cancellations occur in such circumstances, we will endeavour to make every effort to reschedule or make alternative arrangements where possible.

(d). Anti-social behaviour: Anyone engaging in anti-social behaviour will be asked to leave either by the dance teacher or the management of the venue where the class is being held in and no refund will be issued.